

1.1 Jobs versus Careers Questions

1. Jobs are different from careers in that they
 - a. are usually temporary.
 - b. don't offer much personal fulfillment.
 - c. don't offer long-term satisfaction.
 - d. All of the above.

2. The thing that makes a career so great is that it provides
 - a. a vocation that becomes your life's work.
 - b. an opportunity for advancement and professional growth.
 - c. personal satisfaction and fulfillment.
 - d. All of the above.

3. The average person will change jobs less than ten times in their lifetime.
 - a. True
 - b. False

4. Health, education, experience, training, skills, and values all describe your
 - a. Character
 - b. Reputation
 - c. Human capital
 - d. Resume

5. Promotions in your job can often be tied to your level of education.
 - a. True
 - b. False

6. Communication, problem solving, and time management are all examples of
 - a. Soft Skills
 - b. Pure Talent
 - c. Human Capital
 - d. Work Ethic

7. Higher levels of education often lead to higher levels of income.
 - a. True
 - b. False

8. Having less education can lead to more opportunities in your career.
 - a. True
 - b. False

9. Completing higher levels of education shows employers that you have
 - a. a lot of money to pay for education.
 - b. drive and a commitment to learn and grow.
 - c. lots of time to complete your degree.
 - d. really good grades.

10. Having a job while also being in school shows employers that you are able to
 - a. be on the honor roll.
 - b. be employee of the month.
 - c. balance work and education at the same time.
 - d. be able to excel in extracurricular activities.